Miles Associates Welcomes New Team Member

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma – Miles Associates, an Oklahoma City based architecture, planning and interior design firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Architect Lauren Dagg, AIA to the team.

Lauren graduated with a Bachelor of Architecture degree from the University of Oklahoma with a minor in Interior Design. She is a licensed architect and a member of the Texas Society of Architects. Currently Lauren is working primarily on healthcare and research projects.

“Lauren brings a large amount of experience in healthcare architecture to Miles Associates,” said Miles Associates President Garrett F. Miles, AIA. “Her background and experience is of great benefit to our healthcare and research clients and we are excited to have her on our team.”

Founded in 1980, Miles Associates is an architectural, planning and interior design firm focusing on health | science | technology, higher education, and corporate/commercial projects. The firm has studios in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Dallas and Houston.
